INTELLIGENCE JOBS FILLED

Deputy and Assistant Directors of C. I. A. Appointed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—

The White House today announced the appointment of Loftus E. Becker, 40-year-old New York attorney, as deputy to General Walter Bedell Smith, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and Dr. Sherman Kent, 48-year-old former Yale Professor of History, as assistant director.

A partner in the law firm of Cahill, Gordon, Zachary and Reindel, Becker joined the C. I. A. last April. During World War II, he was an intelligence officer with the Ninth Army in Europe.

Dr. Kent was for many years a member of the Yale faculty and left that institution in November, 1950, to join the C. I. A. He was with the Office of Strategic Services during the War and later became an instructor of the National War College in Washington.
